Some Things Never Change

In many respects 1981 was basically the same as any other year. Everyday routines as well as traditional activities played a major role in the life of each student at CHS this year, as well as many years in the past.

Students were faced with hour-long classes with a skimpy five minutes in between. This left students with barely enough time to stroll to one of the many public lockers, flock to the packed rotunda, get in on the latest gossip, and then, with seconds remaining, make an all-out dash to their next class.

Exhausted after a day in the CHS marathon, students stopped off at the Sonic for refueling before beginning their never-ending cruise around town.

There were some things at CHS that students just naturally expected to be the same. Traditional activities such as Homecoming, building the bonfire, the Pine Burr assembly, and the Jr.-Sr. Banquet provided a basis for school spirit while supplying CHS with an identity all its own.

Even though 1981 was traditional in many ways, it also brought changes. Although subtle or unknown to many people, they influenced each student's life.

A new superintendent and new teachers with new ideas influenced education. Computer math and library science were added to the curriculum to give students more choices for electives and to help them understand equipment to be used in the new high school. A new exemption policy was put into effect which made students aware that grades were as important as being on time.

In addition to these changes which affected the academic side of CHS, a federal ban on carbonated beverages made cokes "illegal" on campus. This meant that students no longer could stay on campus and enjoy a coke on their free period or between classes.

Outside World Influences CHS

Whether it was by teachers or peers, CHS was a great influencing factor in the lives of its students. It provided a shelter from the outside world; however, this shelter was not impenetrable. The outside world soon began to influence students' lives. Seniors were faced with selecting a President in their first national election. The Iranian crisis brought tense moments both at CHS and across the nation. Senior males were also faced with the responsibility of registering for the possible draft.

At CHS, many students became aware of an underlying, sometimes threatening feeling of change, as more and more emphasis was placed on the movement to the new high school. These feelings were complicated by the carrying out of traditions, because students realized that long-cherished traditions might never be the same again.

CHS Comes Out of Closet

All kinds of crazy characters came out of the closet to support the Bulldogs during spirit week.

"Happy Days" were here again when Monday, 50's day, took CHS back through time to the days of poodle skirts, cat-eyed glasses, T-shirts, and leather jackets.

With the rising popularity of western fashions, cowboys out numbered Indians on Tuesday; however, the redskins got their revenge on Friday night when the Jacksonville Indians scalped the Bulldogs 14-7.

From the days of the old West, time zoomed forward to the twenty-fifth century for Buck Rogers Day. Costumes complete with antennas and silver faces were out of this world.

Even teachers got in on the act when they unveiled their hidden talents during the Faculty Follies on Tuesday night. Acts ranged from the hilarious to the insane.

1. The Faculty Follies provides Coaches Tucker Bettevy and Gerald Burns with the opportunity to kick up their heels to the "Cotton-Eyed Joe". 2. Doundra Calloway Davis models the Cowboy and Indian Day attire made popular by the movie, "Urban Cowboy." 3. Students gather in the rotunda to decorate the halls for spirit week.

SPIRIT WEEK

Traditional activities on Thursday and Friday broke through the hysteria of the previous three days. On Thursday the Key Club, who sponsored the bonfire, and the rest of the student body donned their overalls to help build the bonfire. Although there was only a short time to work on it, the student body did a tremendous job. As flames shot into the air behind them, the cheerleaders led the crowd in cheers and chants to raise Bulldog spirit. Then as the fire began to die down, students gathered around it to sing the "Alma Mater."

The excitement of Homecoming filled the air as the girls anticipated the delivery of mums on Friday morning. After practice for Homecoming ceremonies that afternoon, the pep rally, held in the gym, raised spirit even higher in order to help the Bulldogs overcome their foes that night.

HOMECOMING

The excitement that is uniquely Homecoming filled the air as five senior duchesses, who were nominated by the football team, were escorted onto the field. Having been elected by the entire school, Susan Bramblett was announced Homecoming Queen. She was escorted by Brad Wisener.

The excitement of the evening soon turned into frustration, however, as the Bulldogs met the Jacksonville Indians in their first zone game of the year. Our Dogs just couldn't seem to overcome the Indians' attack, and our hopes for a Homecoming victory were shattered.

Rallies Rated 'G' For Great

Only one word could describe the Bulldog pep rallies — great. No longer were they just an excuse to get out of class early on Friday, but they were forty-five minutes filled with spirit-raising entertainment. Along with the traditional cheers and chants, pep rallies were highlighted by skits from various departments at CHS. Skits ranging from the choir's "monster mash" to the homemaking style show were thoroughly enjoyed by the student body. Although students were active participants, the faculty played a major role in building spirit. Without the teachers' contribution of their time and effort, the "after-school specials" would not have been as enjoyable. Doing foolish skits and accepting pie in the face, the spirited teachers of CHS made pep rallies something that would not be soon forgotten. The fact that students rose to their feet on several occasions was evidence of the student appreciation for their teachers' enthusiasm. At the end of every pep rally there was a smile on everyone's face and a hope in their heart for a victory later that night.

1. Seniors gather for the traditional singing of the "Alma Mater" at the senior pep rally. 2. The Dallas Jesuit "drill team," guest performers at the second Bulldog pep rally, entertain the crowd. 3. Faith For First Place Fades Into Frustration Frustration was seen in the eyes of a pack of dedicated Bulldogs as their hope for another outstanding season didn't materialize. After two consecutive years of claiming the district crown, the Dogs had the ability and desire to do it again.

To be prepared for the district contenders, the Bulldogs had to build their team in non-district games. The Bulldogs' non-district schedule was challenging even before the first game was played. Carthage had to brace themselves to play teams such as Marshall and Dallas Jesuit, both 5-A teams.

After beating Atlanta in the last non-district game, the race for the title was soon to begin. The Carthage Bulldogs were ready to claim the championship; however, five other teams with the same goal stood in their way. Winning just two of the five district games, the ambition of the Bulldogs was not fulfilled due in part to the team's inability to capitalize on key opportunities.

However, the fact that 12 players of the Bulldog line-up made the South Zone All-District team was evidence of the team's ability and desire to win. Selected for the first team were Brad Wisener, defensive linebacker; Gary Payne, right tackle; Jimmy Blissett, right end; and Gene Lawhorn, right halfback. The second team members chosen from Carthage were Ron Clinton, defensive tackle; Hewitt Deramus, defensive linebacker; Richy Wall, safety; Robert Browning, center; and Robert Hardy, left halfback. Receiving honorable mention were Doug Stokes, defensive guard; and Tony Brown, defensive tackle.

Marshall stampeded through Carthage in their opener leaving a trail of broken hearts and broken players. The Bulldogs were apparently outclassed as the Mavericks beat the Dogs 37-7.

What at first appeared to be another long game for the Dogs turned out to be an action-packed victory. The game against Dallas Jesuit was a series of fumbles with Carthage ending up with the ball and a 21-19 win.

Breaking through their 'victory' sign before the start of the game, the San Augustine Wolves ran over their cheerleaders, but that was all, as Carthage came home with their second victory of the season, winning 26-7.

Carthage then traveled to Liberty-Eylau. A new running back appeared, sophomore Darin Collins, who shocked the fans with his ability to move the ball; however, that was not the only thing that shocked the spectators that night. An obvious win in the first half of play was short lived when the Leopards stunned the Bulldogs with a 20-20 tie.

A new face emerged behind the center in the Atlanta game. After starting quarterback Kevin Smith was injured at the end of the scoreless half, Bryan Stacy proved himself worthy by leading the Dogs to a victory over the Rabbits. Despite the fact that the Dogs lost four fumbles and piled up 81 yards in penalties, Carthage beat Atlanta 13-7.

Jacksonville put a pall on the Homecoming activities at Martin Stadium. The Indians held the Dogs to only 7 points while taking 14 for themselves.

Carthage found their first district victory at Chapel Hill. During the course of the game, the Dogs tracked up 249 yards, the most yardage rushing in one night. With the combined talents of Darin Collins, Robert Hardy, and Gene Lawhorn, the Bulldogs defeated Chapel Hill 13-7.

After the Bulldogs were twice denied a touchdown, Kilgore capitalized on wounded spirits and got away with a 22-0 win over Carthage. This was a bitter defeat because it was the only game in which the team failed to cross the goal line. Kilgore went on to win the 8-A AAAA south zone championship.

The game against Palestine on Halloween night had some Carthage spectators scared. However, the Bulldogs tricked Palestine and treated themselves to a 15-13 win. Hewitt Deramus kicked the only field goal of the year, winning the game in the last minutes.

Fans of the Henderson Lions were roaring as they took Carthage down in their last battle. The Lions took command in the second half holding the Bulldogs to 6 while making 21 for the win.

FOOTBALL

J.V. Overcomes Mid-Season Slump

Under the leadership of Coaches Gerald Burns and Richard Reed, the Junior Varsity ended the year with a 5-4-1 record. The team got off on the right foot by winning their first three contests, however, with the promotion of Darin Collins, the JV squad sacrificed his ability for the improvement of the varsity team. After two straight losses, the team was shaken as district games approached.

In their district opener the team traveled to Jacksonville where they finished in a 14-14 stalemate. The Dogs then let Chapel Hill and Kilgore squeeze by them in very close losses. The Bulldogs regrouped however, and closed the season with big victories over Palestine and Henderson.

Teams Struggle Through Season

Although all their hard work resulted in only a few victories, the junior varsity team made advances toward a stronger and more mature team. Coached by Richard Reed, the JV boys participated in the Pine Tree, Henderson, and Longview tournaments. In district play, the team beat Chapel Hill, Jacksonville, and Henderson. The young team gained valuable experience through their stout competition.

An excellent line-up of varsity girls had an impressive season. Their hard workouts paid off for the girls who lost only three games during regular season play. The Lady Bulldogs lost to Hardin once and S-A Longview twice.

From the start of the year, Coach Cox and the rest of the high school knew that the opposing teams had their hands full when they were faced with the awesome talent of the CHS girls. The Dogs swept through district with no opponent coming closer than twenty points. Although the girls had many easy victories, they never let up, but strived for perfection with the state crown in their eyes.

The team won first place in both the Frankston and Brownsboro tournaments. In the Grapeland tournament, the girls placed third.

Lady Bulldogs who made the first district team were Donna Hawley, Margaret Edwards, and Barbara Tatum. Those making the second team were Vicki Wade, and Patricia Jones. Lesa Jacobs, Tina Williams, and Susan Bramblett were awarded honorable mention.

Girls Upset in Regional Play-off

After defeating Daingerfield, the Dogs played Hallsville in Tatum in the second half of the district play-off. The Dogs controlled the game against the Bobcats from the start. Everyone in the crowded bleachers knew the outcome of the game was to be in the Dogs' favor.

The girls then traveled to Mincola to play McKinney in the struggle for the bi-district crown. The girls played with determination and won the game 60-49.

Carthage then advanced to regional competition and met Dallas Madison at Athens in the Henderson County Coliseum. The girls had the lead at the half, but Madison took it away from them in the closing minutes of the game. The closely-fought game ended at the free-throw line with both sides losing valuable players in the last quarter due to fouls. The bitter loss at Athens ended the girls' hopes for state.

Young Girls Develop Skill

The junior varsity girls ended the year with an impressive record of 24 wins and 3 losses. The girls' team had some outstanding talent which was exemplified by team members such as She...a Bryant and Vanessa Jones.

The girls won third place in the Pine Tree tournament and first place in the tournament held in Carthage.

The hard work and determination put forth by the girls placed them at the top of their district. Coach Sharon Dennard was well pleased with the girls' effort and desire to win.

In their debut at CHS, the freshman team had a remarkable record. The young girls' team, led by Coach Andrew Maxey, ended the year with 10 wins and 8 losses. Because of the success of the freshman girls' team, it was apparent that it will benefit the girls' basketball program.

BASKETBALL

Boys Made of Iron and Wood

The CHS boys golf team consisted of young men who were eager to tee off into the season. After the competition got underway, the ball just didn't seem to break the way they had planned. The boys team had some talented players, but the team scores were not exceptionally low. The golfers played in tournaments held in Overton, Jacksonville, Carthage, Palestine, Longview, Henderson, and Kilgore, all counting towards zone except for the Longview Invitational. The men ended the year in fourth place. The golf team was instructed by Coach Sleepy Reynolds. Greg Shaw led the team with the lowest score of the year and was presented the Louis Robinson Golf Award.

Girls Go For the Green

For the first time CHS organized a girls golf team. However, this fact did not seem to affect their playing, for the ladies did an outstanding job. The lady golfers placed fourth at Kilgore, second at Carthage, seventh at Mt Pleasant, and sixth at the Alpine golf course. At district the girls placed third. Jackie Davis was the leader of the team, taking first place at district with a score of 95. Jackie then advanced to regional in Denton where she had a two-day total of 212 giving her tenth place.

Swimmers Splash Spectators

It wasn't surprising that the Carthage swim team had a sensational year due to the talent which it contained. Louie Deppe, backed with Terry Rider, Kurt Wall, and Kevin Stallings, placed fourth at the state meet in Burnet. The swimmers placed third in the team relay with a time of 1:47.2. Deppe was honored with first place in both the 100 yard freestyle and the 100 yard individual medley. Rider won second place in the 50 yard breaststroke and sixth in the 50 yard butterfly. Kurt finished seventh in the 200 yard freestyle and in the 50 yard backstroke. Stallings placed 14th in both the 50 yard freestyle and the 100 yard freestyle.

Tennis Team Taps In On Talent

The tennis team had a very challenging year. The team contained many young players; however, there were five seniors who had played in previous years. The young tennis players gained a lot of valuable insight in the eleven matches and three tournaments in which they participated. Despite the fact that the team did not place in any three of the tournaments, they did make it to the semi-finals in several divisions.

In zone competition, the netters made it to semi-finals in all divisions, but failed to obtain a victory in the final rounds. The CHS tennis team learned different strategy and worked hard to reach the best of their ability under the direction of Mrs. Tucker Bettevy.

Roscoe Runs At Region

The boys track team had many members who were exceptionally talented in the track and field events. The team competed in the Hallsville meet, the SFA relays, the Jacksonville meet, and the Sabine meet. The Oil Belt meet, held in Kilgore, put the tracksters in zone competition.

The district meet was held in Jacksonville. Those advancing to district were Tony Sanders, Robert Hardy, Dalvin Gardner, and Roscoe Tatum in the sprint relay; Moses Robinson, Hardy, Tracey Sepulvado, and Gardner in the mile relay; Tatum in the 100 yard dash and 220 yard dash; Hewitt Deramus and Tony Brown in the shot put; and Hardy in the 100 yard dash. Roscoe Tatum competed in the region meet in Denton placing third in the 100 yard dash.

Peloquin Places 23rd at State

A multi-talented cross-country team placed one team shy of going to state. By turning in impressive scores at the meets held in Longview, Springhill, and Kilgore, the girls built their momentum and won the district crown. The cross-country team then competed at Pasadena in region competition, where they placed fourth.

The team members' times in the two-mile race were 12:34, Sandy Peloquin; 13:42, Jannifer Williams; 14:23, Laurie Wise; 14:39, Penny Parker; 15:20, Donna Hawley; and 16:26, Helen Hough. In this race Sandy came in fifth, allowing her to advance to the state meet at Southwestern University. Peloquin finished 23rd with a time of 12:24. She was the first Carthage girl to participate at the state level in cross-country racing.

Six Compete In Region Meet

After the scores were totaled at the district track meet, the CHS girls team placed second, advancing six ladies to regional competition. Sandy Peloquin and Shelia Bryant barely missed going to state by coming in third in their respective events. Sandy posted a 12:16.3 in the 3,200 meter run, the best time of anyone in East Texas. Shelia jumped 16 feet 8½ inches in the long jump. Laurie Wise won fourth place in the 1,600 meter run with a time of 5:51.7. In the 100 meter dash, Alice Buffin came in with a time of 12.67, giving her fourth place also. Eva Pope tied for sixth place in the high jump with a leap of five feet. Vicki Wade finished eighth in the 100 meter hurdles, clocking a time of 15.9.

'Dogs 'Steal' Zone Title

Going into the season, Coach Jacke Davis was very optimistic about his team's chances in district play. With seniors Jay Murphy, Roane Smith, Brad Wisener, Brad Williams, Richy Wall, Gene Lawhorn, Tal Centers, and Terry Higgins, he could not help but expect great things. He knew he had the talent to work with, but the only problem was getting the players to gel as a team. In non-district action the Bulldogs had a 7-6 record. Two of these losses were against Hallsville — the team they would later have to face again.

Going into district, the Bulldog team knew that Chapel Hill was their main threat. Then, when Chapel Hill beat them twice and Kilgore squeezed by them in a one point loss, the Bulldogs thought they were finished. But the excitement had not yet begun.

In the last scheduled game of the year the team was in a three way tie with Henderson and Chapel Hill. Carthage, however, claimed the south zone title with a 10-3 victory over Henderson and a Jacksonville upset of Chapel Hill. The Carthage underdogs had come through again and were now challenged by Hallsville for the district crown.

District Decided In Driller Thriller

When the district play off started, the Hallsville Bobcats came into town with their bats ready for action. The first batter came to the plate and sent one of Roane Smith's pitches out of the park, but that was just the start. The Hallsville bats did not stop until they had piled up eight hits and beat the 'Dogs 10-4.

In the next game of the 2-out-of-3 series, the Carthage Bulldogs made up their minds to do something that no other team had been able to do - beat Hallsville on their home field. The Dogs traveled to Hallsville with the determination to bounce back from the bitter defeat at home. The Bulldogs jumped out in the first inning and took the lead with three runs. Then the Dogs picked up another run in the third inning and were on their way to a 4-1 victory. As the Bulldogs shouted, "All the Way" on the Hallsville mound, the Bobcat spectators were stunned with the first loss on their home diamond.

The district tie breaker was held at Driller Park in Kilgore. Everyone there was put through one of the most nerve-racking games of the year. At the end of five innings, the Dogs had a comfortable lead of 7-1 due to some well-executed base running and Jack Van Winkle's pitching. The six-run margin did not last long. In the sixth inning the Bobcat dugout came to life as they started rolling in the runs. At this time, Coach Davis called in Smith to suppress the Hallsville rally. Hallsville's momentum was put out by the Carthage defense just in time to save a 7-6 victory and win the district crown.

In the bi-district opener, McKinney came to Carthage with a 20-6 record and a team that was prepared for action. By the bottom of the seventh inning, the score was 2-2. Carthage knew, however, that they had a win cinched for the bases were loaded with no men out. But the Bulldogs failed to get a bunt down and forced themselves into extra innings with a double play by McKinney. After holding the Lions in the top half of the eighth, Carthage came back to win the game 3-2 with a line drive from Roane Smith that enabled Scott Cockrum to score.

The next game, scheduled to be played in McKinney, was moved to Corsicana due to rain. On their first trip to bat, Carthage pushed five runs across the plate. Some costly errors committed by the Dogs started the Lions on their way, and before they could be stopped, they had scored 11 runs. At the end of the Bulldogs' futile attempt for a comeback, the game ended with the score 7-11. McKinney's momentum and Carthage's wounded morale unfortunately carried over into the next game of the double header hit ter. It was apparent that the Bulldogs were worn out as the team continued to make errors that the Lions took advantage of. Carthage's lead of one run did not hold as McKinney took the bi-district title with a 1-6 win.

Jackie Davis was Coach of the Year of the 8 AAAA south zone. Most Valuable Player was Roane Smith. First team honors went to Brad Wisener, Jay Murphy, and Jack Van Winkle. Second team members were Richy Wall, Brad Williams, and Terry Higgins. Honorably mentioned were Gene Lawhorn, Tal Centers, Scott Cockrum, Robert Hardy, David Williams, and Moses Robinson.

Athletes Get 'Just Desserts'

Coach Tommy Brasher of Southern Methodist University was guest speaker at the annual Football Banquet Feb. 27 in the J. Louis Robinson Cafeteria.

The event, sponsored by the Athletic Booster Club, honored members of the 1980 Battlin' Bulldogs and announced awards for outstanding players.

Junior Hewitt Deramus was named the team's Most Valuable Player. Most Valuable Backs were Gene Lawhorn and Richy Wall, and Most Valuable Linemen were Jimmy Blissett and Brad Wisener. Other awards included Darin Collins, Most Valuable Sophomore; Doug Stokes, Scholastic Award; and Kenneth Allison, Sportsmanship Award.

Participants in all other sports were honored at the All-Sports Banquet May 11.

Dalvin Gardner was the MVP on the basketball team, and Jeff Williams was the team's leading free throw shooter.

Girls basketball awards included Barbara Tatum, Margaret Edwards, and Donna Hawley, Most Valuable Players, and Susan Bramblett, Sparkplug Award. Donna also won the Fighting Heart Award, and Barbara was named the Most Improved Player. Shelia Bryant was the MVP on the junior varsity team.

In baseball, Brad Wisener won MVP, Batting Average Award, and the RBI Award. The Sportsmanship Award went to Brad Williams, and Roane Smith received the Outstanding Pitcher Award.

Outstanding boys track members were Kenneth Allison and Dalvin Gardner. Laurie Wise and Sandy Peloquin were the girls track team's outstanding members.

Golfer Jackie Davis was recognized for winning first place in district competition.

Seniors Honored With Banquet

The night for which the juniors had worked so hard arrived on May 23, when the Jr.-Sr. Banquet was held at the Louis Robinson Dining Hall. Its theme was "Reflections from yesterday .. pathways to tomorrow."

After Junior Class president Tawny Centers welcomed the guests, Mrs. June Lewis played appropriate dinner music selections on the piano. Then Terri Anders entertained with two songs, and Crawford Parker spoke to those in attendance. After his speech, Linda Davis sang the Senior Class song, "It's My Turn."

For the juniors, the evening was over quickly, but for the seniors and their dates, the night had just begun. The celebration moved to Panola Junior College where the Senior Prom, sponsored by the seniors' parents, was held. Seniors danced the night away to music provided by KROK. When the seniors finally departed at 1 a.m., they were tired but happy and filled with memories.

Rain Threatens Final Ceremony

One hundred eighty-one seniors said goodbye to CHS during graduation exercises held May 29. Because of the threat of rain, plans were made for the ceremony to be moved from the stadium to the auditorium. Then, when no rain came, the ceremony was moved back to Martin Stadium.

The ceremony was highlighted by speeches from Valedictorian Theresa Jofrion and Salutatorian Doug Stokes, and the choir's singing "America The Beautiful."

After the presentation of diplomas and the recognition of honor graduates, the class sang the "Alma Mater." Then, as the hats went up and came down, congratulations were made, tears were shed, and friends hugged and said goodbye, the seniors of 1981 went out into the world.

SENIORS

May 29, 1981. This date represented many things for the Senior Class. For some, it seemed a distant dream, the culmination of twelve years of hard labor. Others regretfully saw it as the end of old friendships and traditions. It was a time of excitement as seniors found themselves facing a new future, but there was an underlying feeling of sadness as the "Class of '81" experienced their last bonfire, pep rally, banquet, and assembly. The realization that nothing lasts forever caused seniors to place added value on old friendships and traditions.

As the year progressed, seniors realized that they were indeed the privileged class at CHS. Among the privileges brought by being an upperclassman included parking in the senior parking lot and having front row seats in the auditorium. However, the senior year represented a time of great expense as seniors found themselves shelling out money for everything from rings and invitations to caps and gowns.

Most seniors turned 18 during their senior year. For some, it meant being able to get in legally to their favorite night spots, while for others it had a much more serious meaning. Since 1980 was an election year, they had to make a decision on who to vote for. Even more serious was the fact that senior boys 18 and older had to sign up for the draft.

To many seniors, the last few weeks of school seemed to speed by. Caught up in a whirlwind of banquets, trips and parties, it was a challenge to see if somehow schoolwork could be squeezed in. If this juggling act failed, however, seniors were not overly disappointed to sacrifice a grade point or two.

Topping off the year were the Junior-Senior Banquet, the Senior Prom, and the Senior Assembly. These all proved to be unforgettable experiences. The Senior Assembly was especially memorable, involving a host of seniors displaying their talents.

When graduation night finally came, seniors were able to look with confidence to the future. Not only were they more prepared for what was to come, but they had also made many friends and memories. They realized that although there were friends that they would be separated from, the memories they had made at CHS would be remembered forever.

Juniors Achieve Upperclassman Status

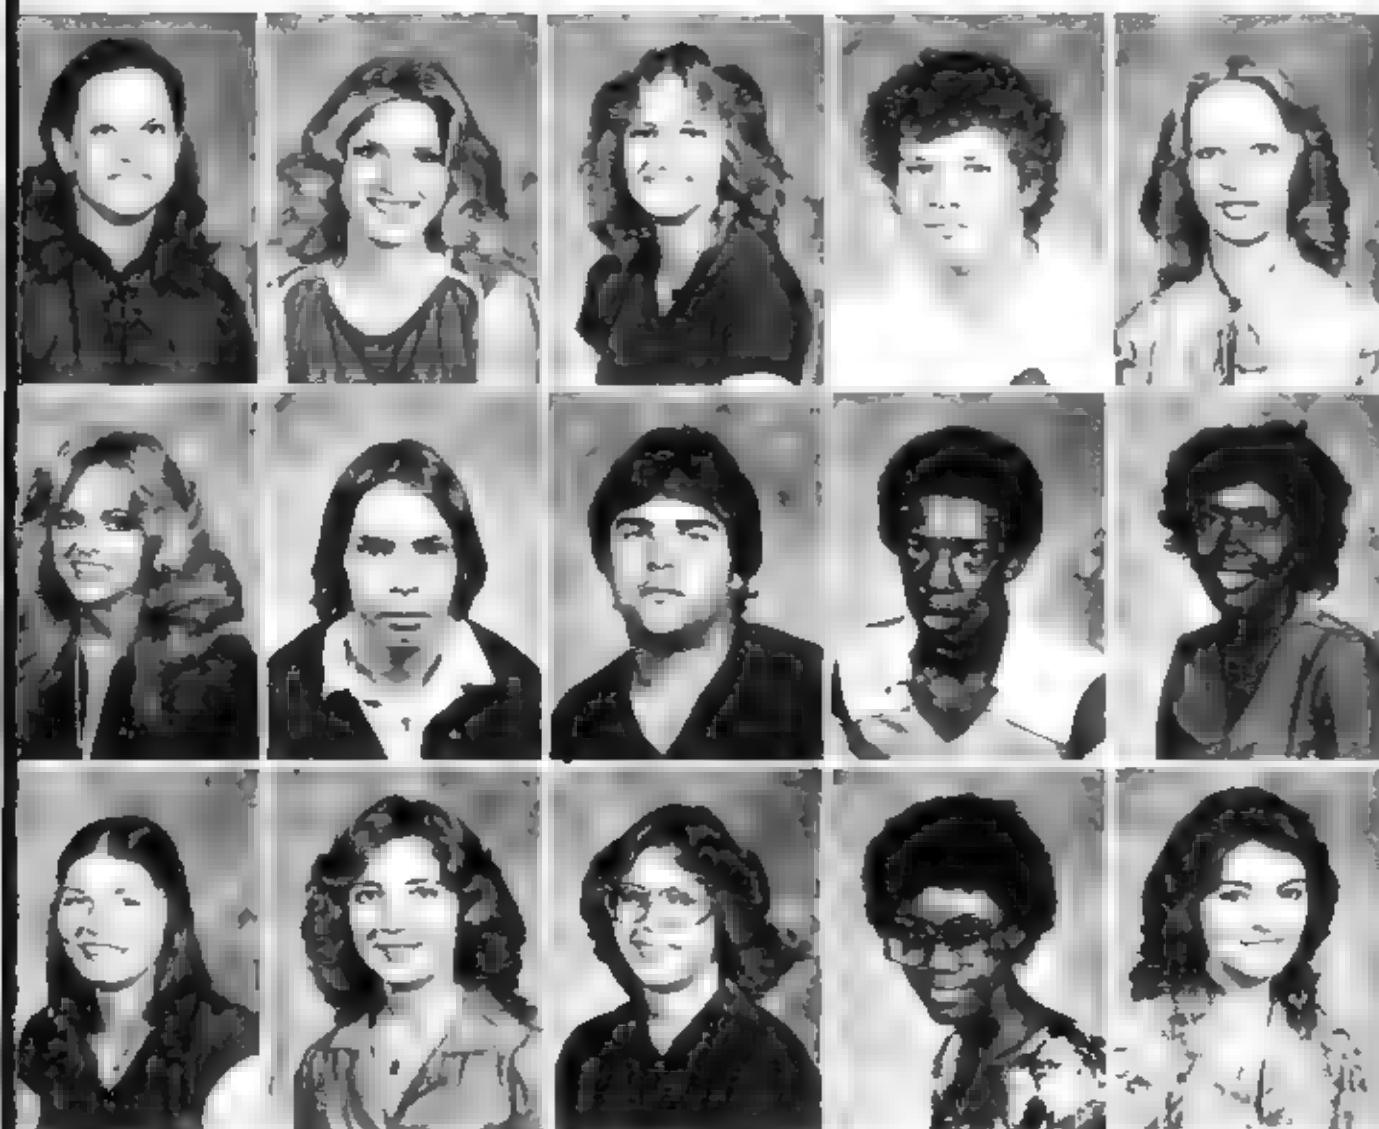

With the opening of the 1980-81 school year, the new Junior Class reached upperclassman status. Along with this privilege came many responsibilities and challenges.

The Junior Class was faced with the task of meeting and beating the challenge of more difficult subjects and numerous activities. Juniors gained leadership experience through holding offices in clubs, participating more actively in Student Council and planning many student activities.

More responsibility also brought many privileges. Juniors began to enjoy free periods, more electives, and the opportunity to participate and lead in the activities of their choice.

Juniors — Seniors of '82

Through the challenges and responsibilities placed upon them, juniors grew in leadership ability and individualism.

As students became aware of their own individual talents and contributions, they began to develop their own interests ranging from competitive sports to fine arts.

Valuable lessons, such as coping with people and organizing and carrying out activities will be with juniors for the rest of their lives.

Sophomores

Sophomores were in a class of their own. Having experienced what the first year of high school was like, they were prepared to dish out a little of their own seniority to the freshmen.

Although they experienced new-found seniority over freshmen, this seniority brought with it an influx of homework. From collecting bugs in Biology 1 to working on section surveys in American History, the load put on the sophomores was not to be taken lightly. Most of the sophomores at CHS enjoyed the challenge put on them, knowing that their remaining two years to be at CHS will probably be easier.

9th Grade Brings In Fresh Faces

Carthage High School was blessed with a number of first-class freshmen. Their originality added a fresh look to life at CHS. Because gaining acceptance seemed so important, they tried out their wit at every opportunity. Doing outlandish, immature stunts without too much criticism is an attribute only a freshman possesses. From climbing the flagpole to walking to lunch, the fish made the most of their first year in high school.

Paula LaGrone Receives Honor

Because of her patience, understanding, and effective teaching techniques, Mrs. Paula LaGrone was named dedicatee of the 1981 Pine Burr. Mrs. LaGrone, who teaches senior English, guided her students through everything from research papers to Shakespeare in her effort to prepare them for college.

Mrs. LaGrone also participated in many school activities. As National Honor Society sponsor, she helped organize the move to the new high school. She also sponsored the Junior Class, and she was instrumental in preparing for the Jr.-Sr. Banquet.

Mrs. LaGrone and her husband, Ronnie, have two children, Garth and Shannon.

CHS Has Top Notch Faculty

The faculty of Carthage High School encouraged students to strive for higher goals and to obtain academic excellence. The importance of a good education was understood by no one better than the teachers of CHS. Because of the time and effort they put into their work, the teachers of CHS were a notch above the rest.

Although some teachers were able to leave their work behind at 3:00, for many work had just begun. Sponsors of clubs and coaches were only a few of the many teachers who had to work extra hours to help students with projects or events in which they were entered. Even if teachers weren't involved with a specific club or team, they all had their "homework" which included grading papers, averaging grades, and preparing lesson plans for the next day.

ORGANIZATIONS

Cheerleaders Spark Spirit

The ability to spark spirit among the student body is no easy task; yet the Bulldog spirit leaders did just that. Their enthusiasm and loyalty to CHS became infectious and infused a feeling of unity among Carthage's devoted supporters. Whether shouting encouragement from the sidelines or performing as dancing pillows in a pep rally, the cheerleaders, along with the pep squad, fulfilled their responsibility of backing the Bulldogs.

Making Money, Having Fun

Making money, helping others, and having fun were the three goals for the Key Club this year.

They made money through window washes, a book move, raking leaves, two egg sales, two telethons, a bike-a-thon, dances, and various other things. From watermelon lunches to afternoon brunches, the club managed to have a good time in everything they did.

Club Brings Home Top Honors

The Key Club took an active part in the first annual Potlatch held in October at the Municipal Ball Park. Sponsoring a Kid's Tour and a facepainting booth, Key Clubbers were a welcome sight for weary parents. Also, to satisfy a grumbling stomach, the club members provided a nacho booth in the foods section.

As a reward for a year of hard work, 42 Key Clubbers attended the Texas-Oklahoma District Convention in Ft. Worth. The club came home winners of the Kim Owen Dinsmore Award for being the most improved club in the district as they placed 15th out of the 236 clubs participating. In individual honors Theresa Joffrion received outstanding secretary while Linda Davis placed in the talent competition. The club scrapbook received honorable mention.

Knowledge Gained in NHS

The National Honor Society was one of the hardest organizations in which to gain a membership and the easiest in which to lose one's membership because of the strict membership requirements. To be eligible for the NHS, a student had to maintain a 90 average while taking the honor graduate courses.

The NHS set up a $100 scholarship to be used by a senior member chosen by the club. The scholarship money was raised by working at the concession stand during a basketball tournament.

The club ended the year by dining at Friday's in Shreveport and attending a show.

Band Marches Its Way to the Top

One of the largest and most prominent organizations on campus is the band. These talented musicians, as usual, ranked highly in marching, solo and ensemble, concert, and sight reading contests.

They put in many long and sweaty hours of band practice, working one hour each weekday and two or three hours during Monday night marching practice.

This hard work was rewarded at each football game and by receiving 1's at UIL contest.

1. Flag team members are Robin Etheredge, Michelle Welch, Theresa Joffrion, Angela Thomas, Angela Allums, Karen Scott, Lisa Thompson, Eva Pope, Captain Helen Hough, Lana Morris, and Ramona Walton. 2. Feature twirlers are Beth Bailey and Tawny Centers. 3. Leading the band on the field are drum majors Cheryl Krutza and Lygia Groom. 4. Majorettes are Ruby Barley, Darcus Sampson, Janet Turner, Vicki Wade, Head Majorette Tanya Sparks, Jan Daniels, Jackie Davis, Donna Socia, and Donna Knight.

5. The Marching Band 6. Band council and officers are Sharon Champion, sophomore council; Jackie Johns, junior council; Ramona Walton, treasurer; Tommy Moore, senior council; Jana Kimmey, reporter; Merry LaGrone, senior council; Lygia Groom, vice-president and drum major; Michael Mayfield, president; Angela Thomas, freshman council; Kent Hanszen, freshman council; Cheryl Krutza, drum major; Don Clinton, sophomore council; Jan Daniels, secretary, and John Crisp, junior council

With all the practice for concerts and solo and ensemble contest, band members still found time to show others where their talents lay. The combined talents of each band member helped them win Sweepstakes for the fourth consecutive year.

Band Makes Top Headlines

A combination of hard work and fun made the band trip to Tennessee a great success.

The band came away from the Dogwood Arts Band Festival in Knoxville with a first place trophy and two second place trophies.

The first place trophy was captured in the parade competition. The band marched through downtown Knoxville for over one mile. Carthage was the only military marching band among the other 89 bands participating in the contest.

Out of the 19 bands in class five, Carthage placed second in the street drill. The other second place trophy was awarded for the concert portion of the competition.

According to Mr. Bird and Mr. Bowie, the band's performance was unequalled by anything they had done all year. They felt the band had played with the pride and the spirit it took to be true champions.

The judges felt that Carthage was an excellent playing band, and that they had great discipline and excellent concentration.

The band managed to squeeze in a little fun after the difficult competition. After the awards assembly, the band traveled to Gatlinburg where they spent the day sightseeing.

The band moved on to Nashville and explored the country wonders of Opryland U.S.A.

After arriving in Carthage, the band was escorted back to the school by the police.

Club Earns "Mucho Dinero"

"Dinero, dinero, y mucho dinero," was the cry of the Spanish Club as they broke all previous val-o-gram and carnation sales records. As in years past, the club had the same activities and projects, such as a Homecoming bake sale, a pinata to break, and the trip to convention, but the results were much more successful. In addition to the remarkable amount of money they earned throughout the year, they also learned much about the culture of foreign countries.

Small in Number, Large in Spirit

Although the French Club had only seven members, they were enthusiastic in learning a new language and participating in the club's activities. At the beginning of the year, the club sold 'current' items which included stationery and gifts. They also worked at basketball concession stands in order to raise additional funds. With a portion of this money, the club sponsored a teachers' tea at which members served cookies and punch. At the end of the year, club members enjoyed an evening at T.G.I. Friday's in Shreveport.

The main purpose of Home Economics Related Occupations was to develop leadership and provide opportunities for self-improvement, and prepare for community living and employment.

HERO is a service organization to improve home, school, community, and individual relations. The members made a float for the Christmas Parade, sponsored a door decorating contest, sponsored a party for their parents and a March of Dimes skating party. The members also selected teachers to be their secret pals.

FFA Learns About the Farm

The Future Farmers of America learned much about "life on the farm." They experienced the responsibilities of raising, grooming, weighing, and selling their projects in the Jr. Livestock Show. Bob Anderson, Jesse Robertson, Joe Harris, and Max Stillwell also attended the Houston Livestock Show.

At the end of the year they sponsored a banquet and awards were given. Winners of proficiency awards were Curt Crawford, Kurt Wall, Carla Hendrickson, Jody Wedgeworth, Tammye Hudson, Mike Davis, Bob Anderson, Mike Mason, Tommy Cox, and Jeffrey Porter. The officers also received awards for their hard work and dedication.

Industrial arts students from Carthage made impressive showings at the regional and state meets. Instructors George Smith and Dan McMurrian aided the young men in preparing their projects for competition. Apparently the teachers had good students, and the students had good teachers for eleven CHS students won at region and six won at state. Those who won at region but failed to advance to state were James Winterrowd, Kyle Marie, Scott Moore, Terry Smith, Steve Maxey, Clif Henigan, Jimmy Rayson, and Chad Durdin.

At the state meet Tim Snow and James Robinson won with their knife projects. Alan Smith won in General Woodworking II. Randy Ritter's hope chest and Robert Decker's stereo cabinet also won. In addition, Terry Rider won with his clock project.

ICT Wins First At District

The Vocational Industrial Clubs of America is a rather small organization, but a very responsible group of young men. Each week, one boy was chosen as the VICA Spotlight because of his outstanding work on the job and to the club.

The ICT Parliamentary Procedure Team won first place at the Skill Olympics and District VII meeting in Sherman on February 27. The team competed in the state meet April 2-4 in Dallas. At the state meet Bryan Gray placed first in Photolithography.

Gary Thomas was selected District VII parliamentarian for next year.

The ICT Chapter was recognized in the first general session for being a 100 percent membership club and completing the citizen's degree in VICA achievement program. Mr. Wendall Ward sponsored the group.

At the district DECA contest held in Longview, three students from Carthage received plaques and the right to compete at the state level. These students were Donna Barlow, apparel accessories; James Williams, finance and credit; and Leslie Crow, general merchandising. During the state DECA Leadership Conference in Dallas, Leslie placed second in the general merchandising division. By placing second she qualified for national competition held in Anaheim, California, in June. At this contest, she also placed second.

Contest, Banquet Highlight OEA Year

"The highlights of OEA each year are the co-op banquet and contest competition," said Mrs. Jeanette Tinkle, sponsor of OEA. This statement was proved true by the students' outstanding achievements at contest and by the success of the banquet.

Three students, Kitty Ritter, Karan Edge, and Jan Zappa, competed in the Area V Leadership Conference. Kitty placed first in the record management clerk competition and then proceeded to state competition where she placed ninth.

In addition to contest competition and preparation for the banquet, the club also sponsored the soft drink machine in the teachers' lounge and worked in the concession stand at some of the high school and junior high basketball games.

The purpose of the Junior Engineering Technological Society was to encourage and stimulate the interest of the prospective engineers and scientists of tomorrow. The JETS, reestablished after missing last year, gained 51 members.

To be eligible for membership, one must currently be in Chemistry, Physics, or Trig-Analysis. Although the club did not meet on a regular basis, all lab experiments constantly kept them working diligently. The highlight of the year was traveling to Texas A&M for Career Day. The students toured the campus and went to a football game.

Carthaginian Gets New Look

The Carthaginian staff completely redesigned the school newspaper. The paper was printed offset on newsprint, which gave it a more professional look than that of the previous mimeographed editions.

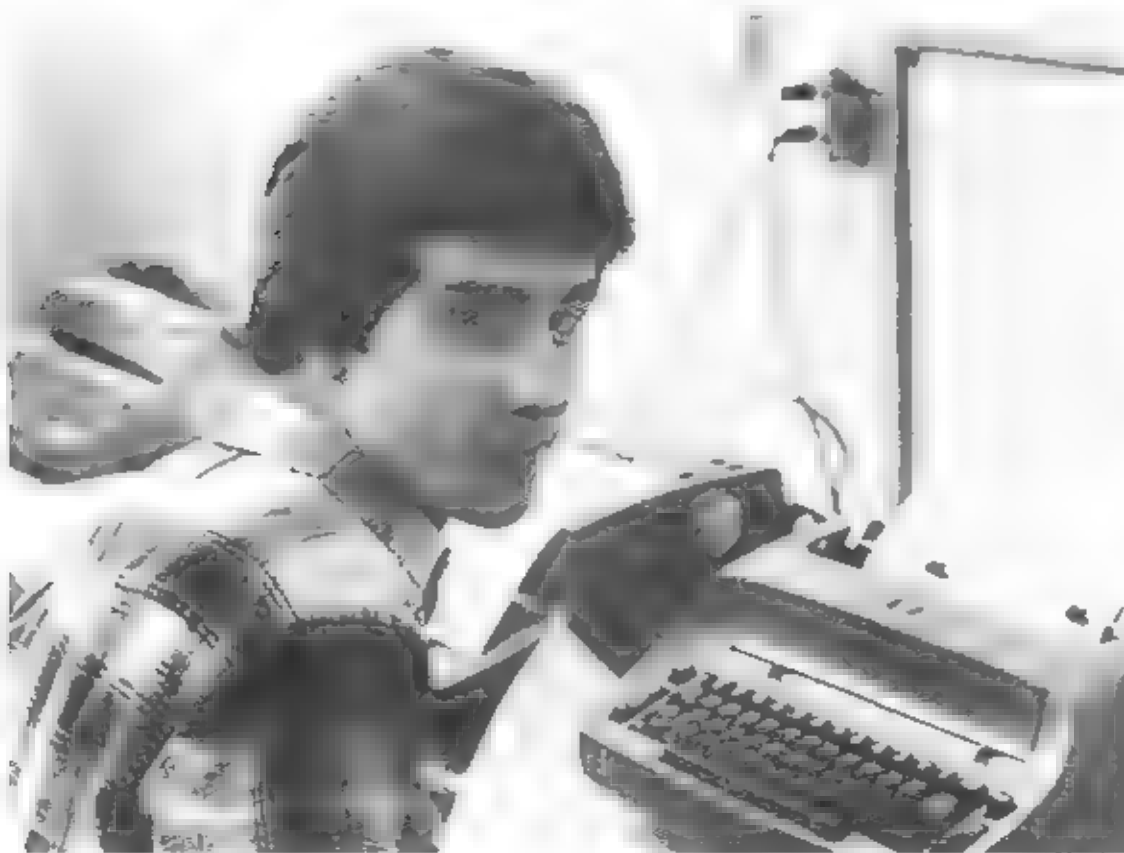

These students did all the work necessary for the newspaper's completion every two weeks. They acquired experience in writing stories and headlines, selling ads, preparing copy for the printer, designing layouts, and developing pictures.

Mark Walker finished second in State editorial writing after capturing first at region and third at district contest. Others placing at district were Susan Cassity and Tracie Bagley, who placed fourth and fifth in feature writing.

The newspaper was sponsored by Miss Patty Davis.

Pine Burr Dedication Pays Off

The Pine Burr staff began their year in July when they attended a workshop held at SMU. At this workshop, they planned the entire yearbook. Their hard work and preparation were rewarded when they received first place in their division for their dummy and third place for theme development.

The staff carried their winning ways into the school year, as they began putting together the actual book. They also sponsored the honors assembly, which proved to be a tremendous success.

The staff, accompanied by sponsor Patty Davis, also attended workshops in Austin and Denton.

Pups Prove Pride

The 'A' team got off to a bad start this season by losing to Jacksonville, 16-0. Then they pulled out a close one against Henderson, 8-6. They tied up the next game against Hallsville, 12-12. The season brightened as the Bullpups won big victories in the next four: Jacksonville, 40-6; Chapel Hill, 42-0; Kilgore, 34-24; and Palestine, 36-6. However, they lost the last game to Henderson, 28-12. The squad finished with a record of 5-2-1. The 'B' team had a season record of 6-2-1.

Team Tries Talent

The boys basketball "A" team's season record was 4-13. The "B" team's was 4-5. However, Coach Preston Fry had this to say about both teams: "Our teams both have a lot of potential and I do not feel the season's record expressed how good our teams played."

Pups Are Winners

The girls 'A' basketball team had an excellent season record of 14-1. They won their first five games with ease — Henderson, 35-20; Jacksonville, 47-21; Chapel Hill, 41-20; Kilgore, 39-4; and Elysian Fields, 32-14. However, Springhill gave them trouble when the Bulldogs were beaten 103-19. Carthage went on to win their last eight games: Center, 33-27; Henderson, 26-25; Jacksonville, 30-25; Palestine, 53-9; Chapel Hill, 43-20; Kilgore, 40-12; Beckville, 29-20; and Henderson, 27-23. The 'B' team also had a very good season record with an 8-3 slate.

Tracksters Set New Records

The boys track team attended four meets this year, placing sixth at Jacksonville, fourth at Henderson, fourth at Kilgore, and fourth at zone. "We had a lot of talent and we got as much out of it as possible. They worked hard and are a promising group of athletes," said Coach Darrell Robertson.

The girls team attended only three meets, placing fifth at district. The girls broke all but one of the previous running records set by Turner and all but two of the field records.

8th Graders Are Capable Leaders

In every group of people there are leaders and followers. At Turner the leadership positions fell to the eighth graders. They were looked up to not only because of their seniority, but for their maturity as well. Eighth graders held almost all offices, leading such organizations as the Student Council, Industrial Arts Club, the band, and the pep squad. In addition, eighth grade athletes dominated the TJHS sports program, while the cheerleaders boosted spirit for their classmates from the sidelines.

Seventh

Decisions Baffle Students

Moving up from the relatively safe world of the elementary school to the jungle of junior high was a trying experience for many seventh graders because for the first time, they had to make their own decisions. These decisions which ranged from "Should I take Industrial Arts?" to "Am I going to eat at the snack bar?" created daily dilemmas for some students. Most, however, were glad for the freedom Turner offered and participated enthusiastically in school activities.

People Make Year Unique

Though seemingly like any other year, 1981 was indeed unique because of the combination of people. Students and faculty members joined together to make the year memorable for everyone.

Evidence of this unity was seen in pep rallies, ballgames, the Jr.-Sr. Banquet, and the Senior Assembly. Because of these special events, and everyday happenings, the year will long be remembered.

1981 Ends Era

1 This rotunda showcase foretells the future of CHS. 2 Bruce Odom and Eva Pope enjoy the lovely setting of the Jr-Sr Banquet. 3 The happy feet of John Worley and Mark Walker celebrate graduation. 4 "Are we there yet?" asks Jeffrey Choate during the Biology II trip to Galveston. 5 The rotunda, once alive with spirit, now stands empty.

1981 brought an end to CHS as it had been known for thirty years, as the move to the new high school was soon to be completed. No longer would students have to worry about running to portable buildings in the rain. No longer would they have to sit in classrooms which were too hot or too cold. Never again would they have to worry about being sent to detention when the bell rang early and they received a tardy.

But not everything at CHS was bad. No longer would students enjoy free periods and the open campus. No longer would the sounds of victory ring from the old gym on Friday afternoon or during the bi-district champion girls' basketball games. No longer would students enjoy assemblies and programs in the auditorium. And the spirit of CHS would never again ring from the rotunda and the halls. But that spirit was not dead. It was soon to find a new home in which to give life.

I can't cover up my feelings in the name of love,
Or play it safe, for a while that was easy;
And if living for myself is what I'm guilty of,
Go on and sentence me, I'll still be free.

It's my turn to see what I can see,
I hope you'll understand, this time's just for me,
Because it's my turn, with no apologies,
I've given up the truth to those I've tried to please,
But now it's my turn;
If I don't have all the answers, well,
At least I know I'll take my share of chances,
'Cause there ain't no use in holdin' on when nothing stays the same,
So I'll let it rain, 'cause the rain ain't gonna hurt me,
And I'll let you go 'though I know it won't be easy.

It's my turn, with no more room for lies;
For years I've seen my life through someone else's eyes,
And now it's my turn to try and find my way,
And if I should get lost, at least I'll own today,
It's my turn, yes, it's my turn,
And there ain't no use in holding on when nothing
stays the same,
So I'll let it rain, 'cause the rain ain't gonna hurt me,
And I'll let you go, 'though I know it won't be easy.

It's my turn to see what I can see,
I hope you'll understand, this time's just for me,
Because it's my turn to turn and say goodbye,
I sure would like to know that you're still on my side,
Because it's my turn, it's my turn.

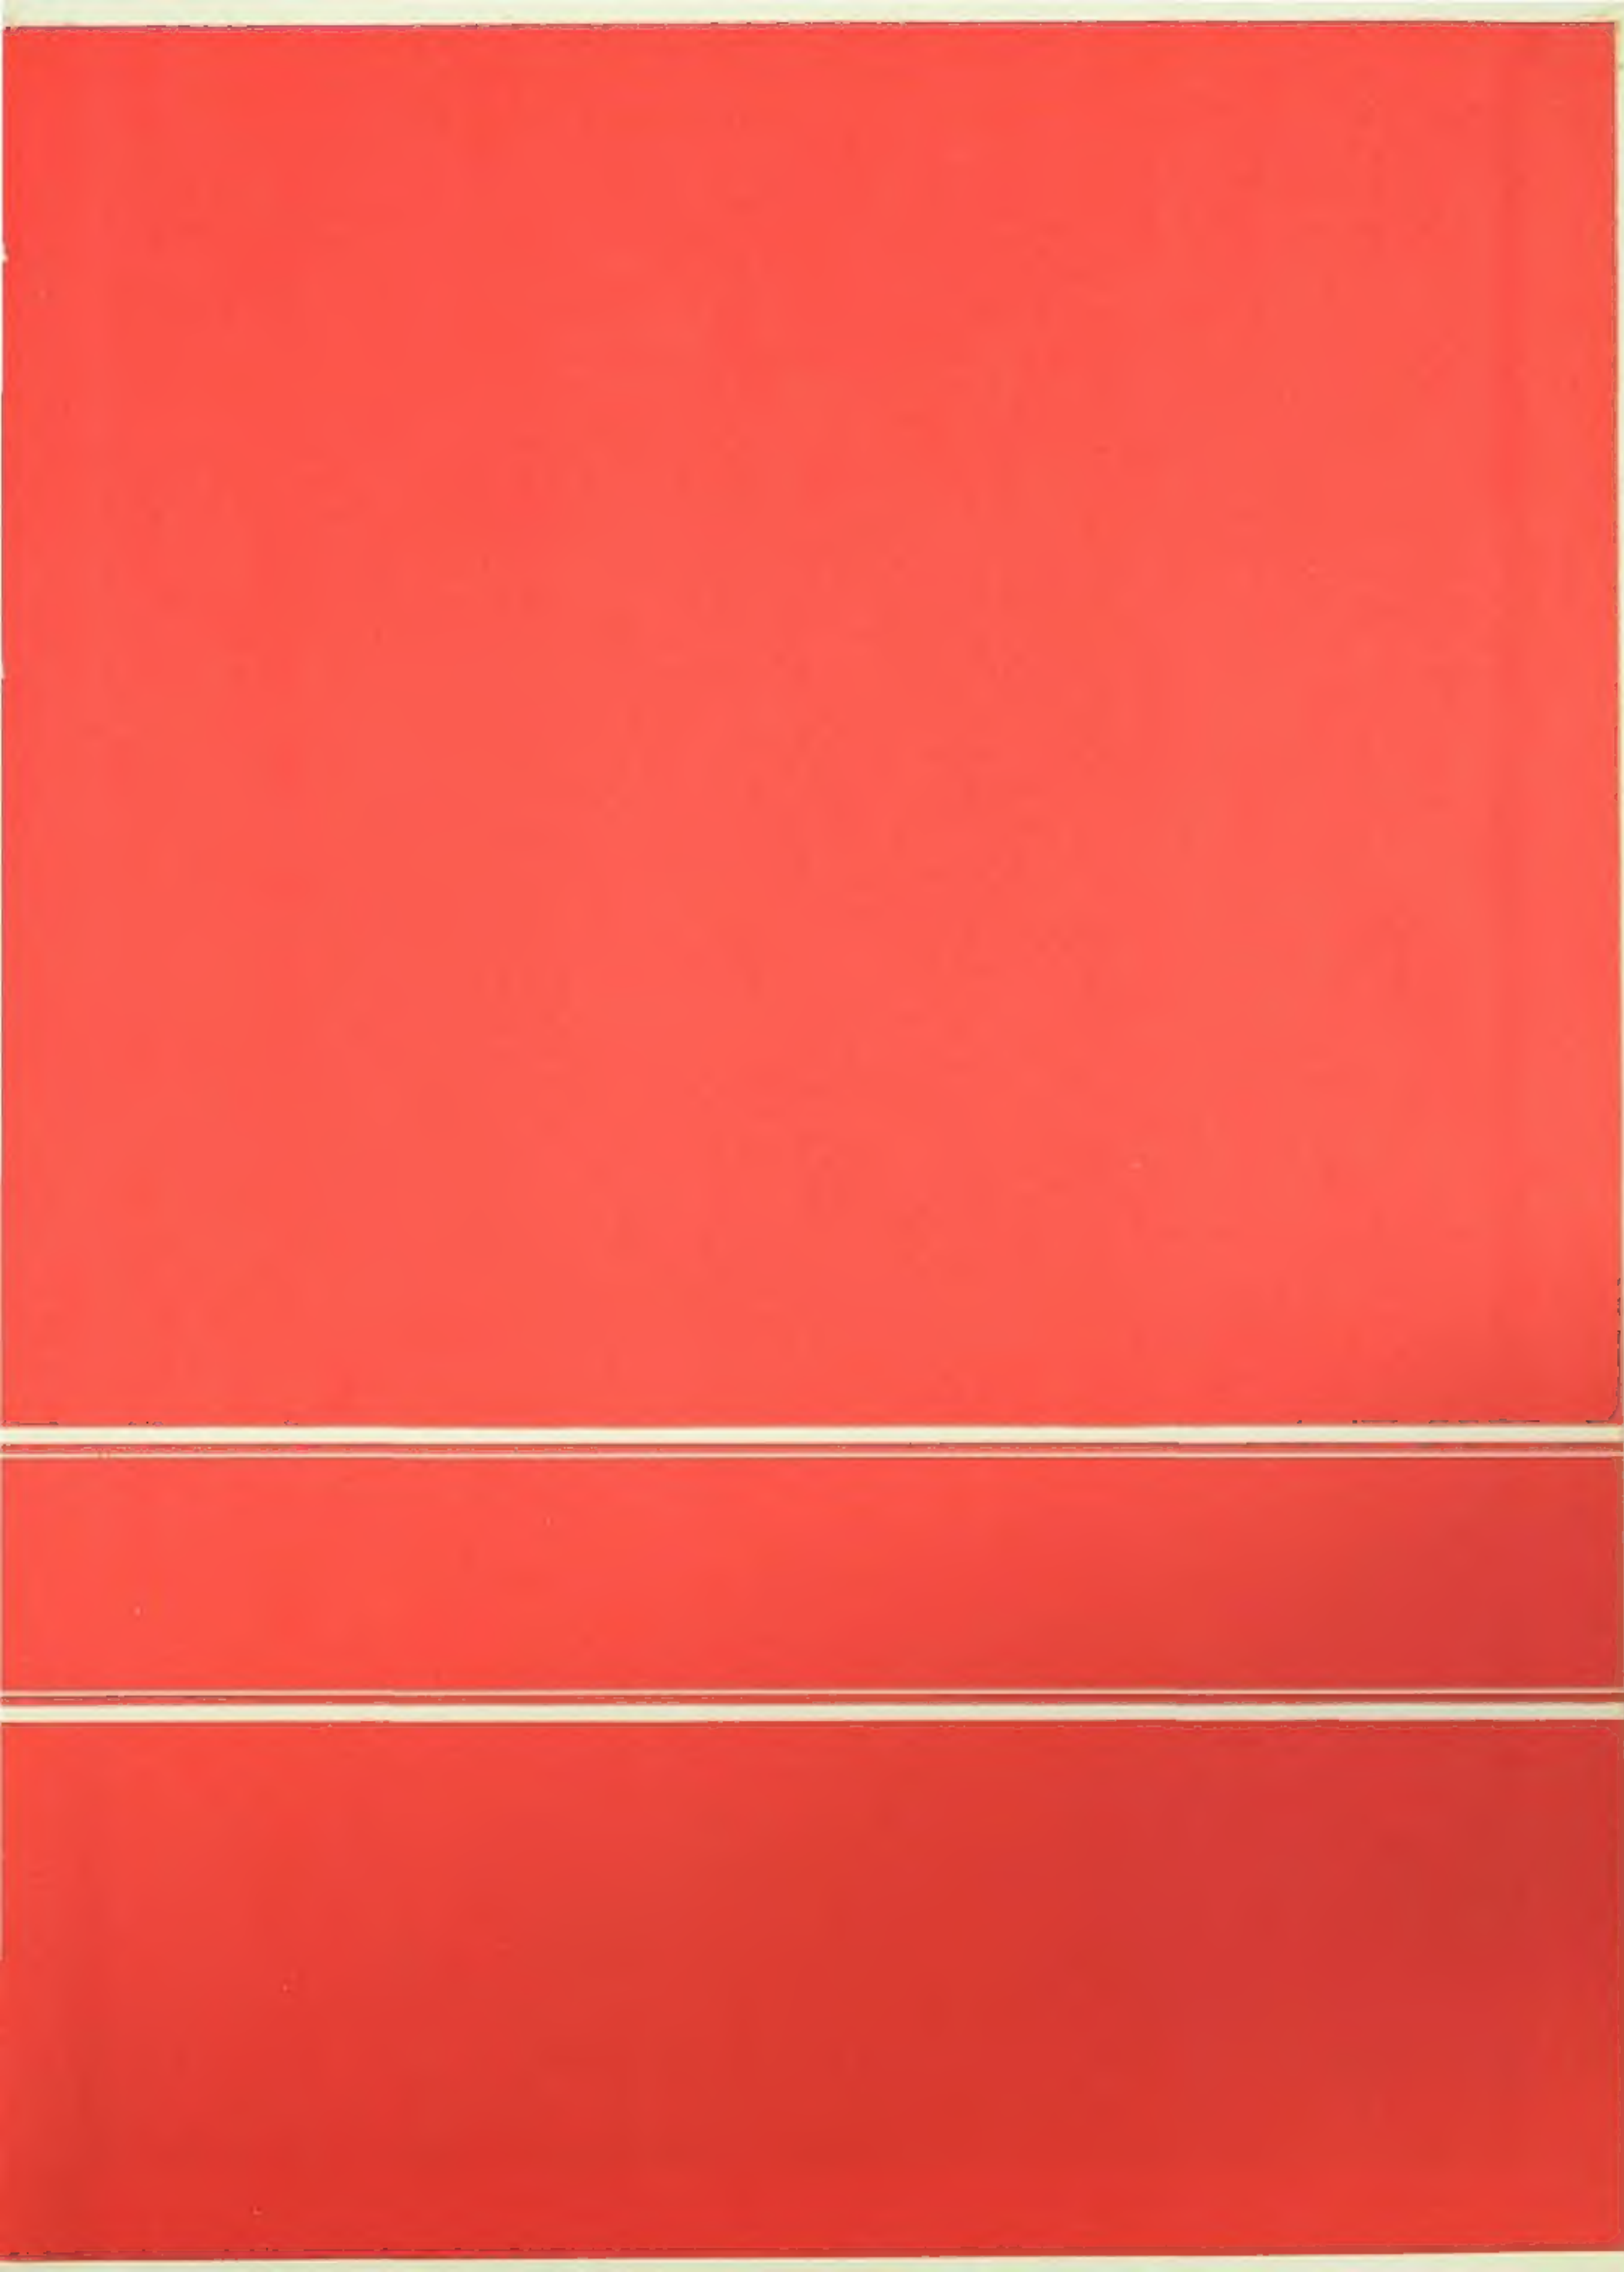

It's my turn to start from number one;
Trying to undo some damage that's been done,
And now it's my turn to reach and touch the sky;
No one's gonna say, at least I didn't try.

It's my turn, yes, it's my turn, it's my turn, my turn.
